Railroad Convention at San Jose--

A Schooner Wrecked in the Arctic.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

RAILROAD CONVENTION.

Proceedings of the Meeting Held at San Jose Yesterday.

SAN JOSE, September 16th.—The Railroad Convention was not called to order until 11:30, the Tulare and Fresno delegates not having arrived until that hour. W. O. Watson, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Santa Clara county, called the meeting to order in the room of Department One of the Superior Court.

T. H. Thompson of Tulare was elected temporary Chairman; W. B. Rucker, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of this county, temporary Secretary.

A Committee on Permanent Organization and Business was appointed, consisting of J. H. Woods of Tulare, T. E. White of Fresno, Thomas McMahon of San Benito, Alex. Gordon of San Mateo, and J. C. Zuck of Gilroy.

The Chair authorized the delegates to hand their credentials to the Secretary.

Adjourned until 2 p. m.

The Committee on Permanent Organization and Business met immediately.

The committee recommended that the officers of the Convention consist of a President, four Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and a committee of five on resolutions.

The committee also recommended that a committee of five for local work in each county, an Executive Committee, consisting of one from each county, Kern and San Francisco, included in that committee consisting of one from each county to gather statistics in his county of the amount of freight shipped, railroad facilities and necessities for the same.

The committee recommended John T. Doyle for permanent Chairman; J. C. Zuck, Secretary; Vice Presidents: J. H. Robinson of San Mateo, J. A. Clayton of Santa Clara, F. C. White of Fresno, and Mr. Blodgett of Kern.

Delegates from Santa Clara, San Mateo, San Benito and Tulare were reported present and seated.

The report of the Committee on Permanent Organization and Business was adopted.

Chas. Doyle addressed the Convention and stated the objects of the meeting.

A Committee on Resolutions was appointed as follows: A. Greeninger of Santa Clara, Alex. Gordon of San Mateo, J. H. Woods of Tulare, William McIntyre of San Benito and the Chairman.

After various committees had been appointed, James A. Clayton stated the objects of the Convention and said it was necessary to show the most feasible route through to the Coast Range, and induce some competing company to take it.

Statistics must be obtained showing the amount of freight to be shipped, and the cost of building the road.

J. H. Henry, representative of the San Joaquin Southern Railroad, addressed the Convention, and said that if the Convention had been postponed a little longer, his company would have had a definite proposition to lay before the body.

He assured the Convention that it was the intention of his company to have an overland road, and the most feasible route was now being searched.

The report of surveys on Pacheco Pass was not satisfactory to the directors, and the surveys had been sent back to examine the ground again, and if that pass was not found satisfactory, other adjoining passes would be examined.

He believed the only thing the Convention could be asked for would be the right of way and depot grounds, and he hoped at the next meeting of the Convention he would be able to present a plain, business proposition.

A Committee on Statistics and Executive Committee were appointed. The committee is composed of James A. Clayton, of Santa Clara, Chairman; Alex. Gordon, of San Mateo; Wm. Palmgren, of San Benito and M. Premeo, of Tulare.

A resolution was adopted declaring the urgent necessity for a competing railroad, and the convention adjourned to meet at the call of the Executive Committee.

PERILS OF THE SEA.

A Schooner Wrecked in the Arctic During a Gale.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 16th.—Early this morning the schooner Oscar and Hattie, Captain J. J. Haviside, arrived in port, nine days from Fox Island. By the arrival of the schooner, the company was received that the whaling tender Thomas Pope had been lost in the Arctic, but the crew was saved and is now on board the United States steamer Albatross.

Captain Fisher of the Pope and Steward Choate were the only passengers that came ashore.

Letter on Reciprocity With Foreign Countries.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

RECIPROCITY.

Secretary Blaine Writes a Lengthy Letter on the subject.

BOSTON, September 16th.—In response to an invitation to the annual banquet of the Boston Club of Boston, Colonel Blaine, editor of the Journal, has received a letter from Mr. Blaine, in which the Secretary of the State, referring to a portion of the invitation saying that the members of the club are in hearty sympathy with his views regarding the best methods of extending American trade, regrets that engagements will not permit him to address the meeting.

Members of the club, he says, can do a great good by countering a certain phase of New England opinion which he regards harmful to New England interests. New England is to receive in the new tariff the amplest protection for every manufacturing industry within her borders, and it will be in the judgment of the Secretary of State, both inexpedient and injurious for the representatives to disregard a measure which will promote Western interests.

Mr. Blaine referred to a letter recently received from Mrs. President of the late Convention of Millers at Minneapolis, referring to the excessive duties on American goods in Cuba, and the fact that Americans would be unable to retain any part of the Cuban flour trade unless immediate relief is secured. In view of these facts, says Mr. Blaine, it is possible that a protectionist Congress can even think of opening our markets to Cuba's products free, while allowing a great Western industry to be absolutely excluded from her markets by a prohibitory tariff.

With reciprocity the West can annually sell many hundred thousand barrels of flour in Cuba and Porto Rico, together with large masses of other agricultural products. Without reciprocity she will be driven more and more from these markets. Giving the fullest protection to all Eastern interests, as the proposed tariff does, surely no man of good judgment, certainly no protectionist of wise forecast, wishes to expose a Western interest to a serious injury, especially when it is manifestly easy to protect and promote the same. Because at this very time the Boards of Trade, Chambers of Commerce and public opinion in Havana are demanding reciprocity trade with the United States.

Certain wise men have asked him, "Can we sell farm products in South America where some things are produced there?" Cereals are undoubtedly the staple of the northernmost portions of South America, but wise men will remember that cereals and sugar do not grow in the same soil, and sugar countries are in Central America and the West Indies contain forty millions of people, who import the largest part of their breadstuffs. Indeed, the largest portion of the sugar product of Latin America is at our doors, and we greatly enlarge our exchanges there if Congress will give us an opportunity for a reciprocal trade.

Analysts also observe that they want time to study the system. To this might reply that the best method of studying the system is to observe its practical workings. While striving in the abstract and refusing to take some object lessons, the men proposed to open our markets to Latin American markets free of all charge, without asking the Latin-American countries to give us in turn some freedom in their markets.

The object lesson before us is the treatment of the sugar question. Shall we make the Latin-American countries a gift of that trade? When we have studied that lesson we shall be prepared for a second.

The worst proposition of all is put forth by those who say "Let us not make a free list now, and next year take up the subject of reciprocity."

If I run' erstand their logic, it is to make sugar free this year, and then to open up next year to ask Spain if she will not kindly consent to grant us a reciprocal trade. Holding a complete vantage ground ourselves, the proposition is to contain the vantage ground to Spain. Those who take this ground belong to that class of careful guardians of property who prepare a strong lock for the stable after the horse is gone.

I do not mean in anything I have said to imply that reciprocity is only a Western interest. It will prove beneficial and profitable both to the country and to the many forms by which our business interests will be promoted by reciprocity cannot be known until the active commercial men of the United States have developed those forms by investigation and experience. We shall not realize the full benefit of the policy in a day, nor a year, but shall we not now present countless millions of trade in addition to sixty millions we have already thrown away, and then ignorantly declare without it the system is not worth the cost?

There is one fact that should have great weight, and especially with the protectionists. Every free trader in the Senate voted against reciprocity. The protectionists throughout the country showing a determined hostility to it. It is evident that the free trade Senators and free trade papers have specific reasons for their course. They know and feel that with a system of reciprocity established and growing, their policy of free trade receives a most serious blow. The protectionist who opposes reciprocity in the form in which it is now presented, knocks away one of the strongest supports of his system. The enactment of reciprocity is the safeguard of protection. Defeat reciprocity is the opportunity of free trade.

TWENTY-ONE ROUNDS.

Jimmy Carroll, of San Francisco, Knocks

Out Andy Bowen.

NEW ORLEANS, September 16th.—The long expected fight between lightweights Andy Bowen, of New Orleans, the colored boy who recently defeated Billy Myers, and Jimmy Carroll, of San Francisco, who was defeated by Jack McAllister in a 47-round fight some time ago, came off to-night, and Bowen was knocked out in the twenty-first round. About 1,000 persons witnessed the battle, which was a good one. Bowen weighed 130 lb. and Carroll 132 lb. The purse was $3,000, of which $250 was to the loser. The police insisted on five-ounce gloves.

In the first two rounds there was no material advantage on either side, Bowen having the best of it, if anything. In the third, fourth and fifth rounds Carroll was on top, landing several severe blows on Bowen's face and body, although he was pretty well dazed himself by the punches in the stomach and on the nose.

In the sixth round both men were tired, but Bowen succeeded in knocking Carroll down with a right-hand swing, nearly repeating it a moment later with a right-hand on the jaw.

From this to the fifteenth round the honors were about even, some hard blows being received by both men, each of them seeming pretty weary.

In the fifteenth Carroll knocked Bowen down with a terrible right-hand. Bowen got up, but Carroll was too weak to finish him.

In the sixteenth round both received punishment, and in the seventeenth Carroll gave a tremendous punch in the stomach to Bowen in return for a stinger on the neck, and also drew blood from Bowen's nose. Bowen clinched and they fell, Carroll on top.

In the eighteenth Bowen hit Carroll on the eye, cutting it, and receiving in return a blow on the nose, which felled him. In the nineteenth Bowen was very weak, and Carroll, getting his second wind, gave Bowen several severe blows. In the twentieth Bowen tried hard to steady himself, and managed to avoid a knock-out, but in the twenty-first Carroll landed right and left, and Bowen fell exhausted. He rose again, but fell immediately, and was then counted out.

He was terribly punished but made no complaint, having done the best he could. He showed great gameness, and was loudly applauded. Carroll was unharmed, save a slight cut and a swollen upper lip. Time, one hour and twenty-four minutes.

Self Praise.

Self-praise is no recommendation, but there are times when one must permit a person to tell the truth about himself. When what he says is supported by the testimony of others no reasonable man will doubt his word. Now, to say that Allcock's Porous Plasters are the only genuine and reliable porous plasters made is not self-praise in the slightest degree. They have stood the test for over thirty years, and in proof of their merits it is only necessary to call attention to the cures they have effected and to the voluntary testimonials of those who have used them.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Allcock's and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

DAILY RECORD-UNION

TWO ASSURITIES.

It is said that the widow of General Barrundia has gone to Mexico to consult President Diaz, and lay before him certain papers proving that Barrundia had taken out preliminary certificates of intention to become a Mexican citizen, and that therefore he was entitled to Mexican protection. It is added that if this proves to be true, Mexico will demand satisfaction from Guatemala for the death of Barrundia.

All of which is sheer nonsense. If Barrundia had any claim to protection because of a secret relation to Mexico, he did not advance it and had never made it public. It is not being known that he was not a Guatemalan, that he had taken steps to forsake allegiance to his native land, how, in the name of common sense, can any one contort logic or international law so as to justify the opinion that Mexico may rightfully demand satisfaction of Guatemala for Barrundia's death? Yet we are told that lawyers say President Diaz may and probably will do that thing, if it proves to be true that Barrundia was in the probationary state of Mexican citizenship. To telegraph such nonsense across the continent is a waste of time and the electric current.

Side by side with this absurd story of Barrundia's secret citizenship in Mexico, is another to the effect that a United States Senator has written that the United States Minister to Central America will be required to resign, because public opinion is so deep and strong against him in the United States on account of the Barrundia matter. The truth is that there has not been any such expression of public opinion. We have no special regard for the Minister, but simple justice demands that his official action be defended, since it was right action, and has innumerable precedents. He did precisely what, under the law, he was compelled to do, in the Barrundia affair, and to have refused to do as he did would have been official misconduct.

The American people love justice; a trait of American character is a love for fair play. In this case the very few who have run away with the idea that the death of an American ship in a foreign port is a haven of refuge for local offenders. The great mass of our people well understand that such is not the law, and should not be. They know also that the American Minister could not otherwise advise the Captain of the Acapulco that he did, without gross violation of duty. They know besides that the Minister secured from Guatemala a pledge that Barrundia's life should be spared, and that Barrundia's death is chargeable to his own folly in firing upon the officers.

We do not admire Minister Mizner, we repeat, and think him a greatly over-rated man, and one not equal to filling the important post he occupies, but we cannot remain silent when an American official he is misjudged. To reproach the Minister for his part in the Barrundia affair, in the light of the facts as now revealed, would be a national reproach, and a declaration to all citizens that they must accept positions abroad representing their country at the risk of being disgraced by their own land for simply doing their clear duty, and is removed in response to the hot-headed and unintelligent cry of a few newspapers and ill-informed people.

THE ELECTRICAL STREET RAILROAD AGAIN.

Fears are entertained that the Electrical Street Railway franchise will yet be defeated. It is to be hoped that there will be no such disastrous result. The request of the stockholders that it shall be provided that the question of the road becoming a nuisance, if it ever arises, shall be passed upon by the Courts of the land is a reasonable one. Why two of the Trustees should refuse to consider it, passes comprehension. Why they should refuse to hear the petitioners, is incomprehensible. The right of petition is a sacred one, not even denied by an enemy. It is of our history that a Congressman once presented a petition favoring the dissolution of the Union, though he was an uncompromising Unionist himself.

The Trustees know that the people of the city want the electrical road. The grant has been surrounded by many conditions; one of them takes from the Courts of the land the right to determine, if the road ever becomes dangerous to life or health, whether it should be pronounced a nuisance. It is asked that this proviso be amended so as to have the Courts pass upon any such possible issue. To this two of the Trustees object, and walk out of the Council Chamber. We submit that this is not becoming conduct; that what is asked is but reasonable, and that it has been petitioned for properly. If the loss of the road results from the refusal of the Trustees to hear and grant the petition, the city will be seriously injured; enterprise and capital will not soon again knock at our doors, and energetic men will decline to make ventures in this community.

Let the two Trustees who walked out and left the petitioners' request ungranted reflect that an appeal to the Courts is the proper resort to determine if a scientific apparatus in use in public roads is dangerous to human kind. Before our Courts we try facts under the law, and do justice under the accepted methods of determining the truth. Why should the Trustees refuse to trust such determination to the Courts instead of to a municipal board not judicial in character?

We trust that cooler moments will bring wiser counsel, and that the electrical railway will be promoted, not killed off.

BRIEF NOTES.

Miss Bertha D. Boy, daughter of John Boy, died yesterday afternoon at her home. Deceased was an estimable young lady, and death came after a lingering illness of about a year.

The lady who sang on the street last evening was for years a teacher in San Francisco. She was paralyzed four years ago, and as yet it is all she can do for the support of herself and two little daughters.

"Weak and weary" describes the condition of many people debilitated by the warm weather, by disease or overwork. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the medicine needed to build up and strengthen the body, purify and quicken the sluggish blood, and restore the lost appetite.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SECOND DAY OF THE CONVENTION.

Election of Officers for Next Year—Rufus Shoemaker of Grass Valley Elected as President—Other Matters.

The Northern and Central California Press Association was called to order again by President Green yesterday morning at 9:45 o'clock.

J. E. Slinkey, of the Sananito News, was admitted to membership.

The committee appointed to nominate officers of the Association for the ensuing year, submitted a report advising that last year's officers be re-elected, by acclamation, with one exception, as follows: President, W. S. Green; Vice-President, G. M. Francis; Secretary, J. H. Rogers; Treasurer, General T. W. Sheehan; Executive Committee—Wick B. Parsons, Dr. Dodson, Allen B. Lemmon, Watson Chalmers and J. A. Woodson. Mr. Francis was the new member of the Board recommended.

President Green, in a short address begged to be excused from acting as Chairman for the year. He claimed he was not well enough learned in parliamentary law to preside over such a body of intelligent men. He felt honored in having been offered the office, but thought a man better qualified could have been selected.

Dr. Dodson, of the Red Bluff Sentinel, thought the Association should be proud of its President, Mr. Green, and he felt sure that it would re-elect him by a unanimous vote.

Editor McPherson of the Santa Cruz Sentinel opposed the report of the committee on Nominations in a vigorous manner. He declared that he would not vote to elect any member of the Association to hold office for a second term. That party positions ought to be divided up among the members. Although he had a great deal of respect for the present President, he could not conscientiously vote to retain him a second term.

President Green said he felt himself placed in a very delicate position by Mr. McPherson's remarks, and he again declined to act for another term.

Mr. Woodson moved to avoid all difficulties by declaring that nominations be in order for President. It was so ordered.

Mr. Watson placed in nomination Rufus Shoemaker of the Grass Valley Telegraph.

Mr. McPherson nominated Dr. Dodson of the Red Bluff Sentinel. The latter gentleman declined.

Mr. Green was then nominated, but he emphatically declined, and Mr. Shoemaker was unanimously elected. He was escorted to the chair by Messrs. Dodson, McPherson and Chalmers and made a brief address. He said he felt that he had been honored higher than he ever expected to be in his life. To be President of an association of newspaper men was an honor and a position which he felt exceedingly proud to hold. He thanked the Association for the honor and hoped to be able to fill the position acceptably.

G. M. Francis, of the Napa Register, was unanimously elected Vice-President. W. S. Sheehan Treasurer, and J. H. Rogers Secretary.

The Executive Committee was ordered increased to seven, and the following gentlemen were appointed to act: Wick B. Parsons, Dr. Dodson, Allen B. Lemmon, Watson Chalmers, J. A. Woodson, W. S. Green and D. McPherson.

The by-laws of the Association, as revised by the committee and published in the Record-Union yesterday, were taken up for passage.

Editor Mason, of the Truckee Republic, read a proposed substitute for Section 3 of the by-laws. The main change suggested in the amendment was that not more than one person connected with any one newspaper be allowed to vote, but that they have the right to become honorary members. The substitute was rejected.

It was moved that the field for membership be extended so as to include all of the Pacific Coast States, but a vote being taken the amendment was lost.

The by-laws, as revised, were then adopted.

Mr. Woodson introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That in the interim of the sessions of the Association, the Executive Committee may admit to temporary membership any person who is a member of the Association, and who is a superintendent to deal with such persons as are admitted to membership.

It was resolved that the next meeting of the Association be held in Napa, in the month of March.

Wick B. Parsons read the report of the Executive Committee, and it was listened to with interest by the members. It included a statement from Mr. Uihorn, the Association's Superintendent, reviewing the past year's work. He estimated the amount of advertising he had gotten for the papers, and advised that although business might be slack at times, that they stand up to their pledges and demand fair rates. The report also contained considerable good advice to the Association from the Executive Committee.

After the report was adopted a general discussion was indulged in on matters that pertained to the good of the society, after which a recess was taken till 2 p. m.

Evening Session.

It was decided to dispense with the afternoon session, and the Association was not called to order until 8 o'clock in the evening to conduct the remaining business. There was a small attendance at the meeting.

S. S. Boynton of the Oroville Register read the following programme on "The Country Newspaper."

The country newspaper resembles a homely man, it is not handsome, it is not well-dressed, it is like a woman's boom-stick, for it is a more effective weapon than it appears. Country newspapers are not to be despised, and among young ladies, for they believe in good impressions, love a new dress, like to be admired and expect to be taken notice of. They are in one respect, for while some are fed upon news, others are fed upon gossip, and upon gossip they are very susceptible. A good many of them are not much to look at, but they are good for a great deal. The Musical Bands Provided by the Liberal Band Yesterday's and To-day's Racing.

Yesterday deserves to be classed as one of the great days of the fair, and to-day's events promise to even exceed in interest those which pleased and interested so many people yesterday. ## THE ANNUAL ADDRESS.

To-morrow evening the annual address will be delivered in the Art Gallery by Wm. H. Mills, of San Francisco. Arrangements will be made to seat an unusually large number of visitors in the gallery, as the address will embrace subjects of interest to nearly all classes.

AT THE STOCK CROSSLING.

Another Fine Horse and Cattle Show—
Fine Balloon Ascension.

The second grand stock parade took place at the Park yesterday, and was witnessed by a great crowd of people. It presented the same interesting features as on Saturday. Before and after the parade the committees were about examining the animals preparatory to passing judgment upon their merits.

Large numbers of farmers and cattle-raisers were present when the animals were being inspected, and there was admiration in all portions of the stock grounds.

THE BALLOON ASCENSION.

After the stock parade throngs of people crowded about the spot where Professor Awerkamp was about to inflate his large balloon. A little after 1 o'clock everything was in readiness and the monster let go. Up it shot into the air, carrying the parachute attachment, with the daring young aeronaut hanging to the ropes. After going up a couple of hundred feet the balloon drifted off in a northerly direction. When about over the center of the Park, and probably 2,000 feet high, the parachute was detached and the aeronaut shot downward like a rock. Soon the parachute caught the air and spread open like a big umbrella, and the descent became more gradual.

Awerkamp found that he was about to alight pretty hard on the roof of one of the low stables north of the grand stand, so, just as he got along side of it (the parachute was drifting westerly), he let go and dropped about fifteen feet to the ground, without injury.

The balloon came down on Twentieth street, a few blocks farther toward the north levee.

There will be another stock parade to-morrow (Thursday), at 10 o'clock. It will be followed by another balloon ascension, and again on Saturday.

YESTERDAY'S RACES.

The Talent Truly Sought in a Trotting Race—Drivers Unseated.

There was about the usual attendance at the races yesterday afternoon. The day was a delightful one, with a fresh, cool breeze from the south, which added greatly to the comfort of all present. There was music by the First Artillery Band between the races and heats, the contests were spirited and interesting, and there seemed to be nothing wanted to make the afternoon one of pleasure to all. The judges for the day were Directors LaRue, Green and Boggs, Timers, L. J. Rose, H. J. Agnew and C. S. Crittenden.

Before the races the fast pacing mare Crick, which swept the boards in the Eastern circuit, was speeded around the track, not only to make against time.

FIRST RACE.

The afternoon's sport opened with the trot for three-year-olds eligible to the 2-40 class. The starters were Gregory's Lynette, Tietjen & Watson's Frank B., Funk's Lottery Ticket, and the new stock farm's Millie Wilkes. The lone filly, Lynette, was a great favorite, selling just before the race at $100 to $35 for Frank, and $27.50 for Lotter and Wilkes by a bold Lynette made her debut at the beginning of the circuit this summer, and won her first right along, but yesterday proved a disappointment to her backers.

First heat—The horses were sent away on the second score, Lynette at once moving to the front. She lost her feet on rounding the turn, however, and fell away back, Frank B. taking the lead. Between the quarter and half he broke and Lotter Ticket passed him with a rush, Lynette and Wilkes also passed Frank, and on the far turn Lynette closed the gap between her and Lotter, but she was eased up coming down the stretch, Lotter winning in 2:30 by about fifty yards, Wilkes third and Frank distanced.

Second heat—Lynette now brought $40 against $20 for the field. After three attempts the horses got the word. They went together for about a hundred yards, when Lynette broke and fell back, Lotter going to the front, as before. At the quarter he led Wilkes by a length, Lotter thirty yards in the rear. Lotter widened the gap to the half, where he had four lengths the best of it, Lynette still last by six lengths. She did not better her position much coming down the stretch, and was pulled up at the drawgate, Lotter winning. Millie Wilkes four lengths behind. Time, 2:31.

After this heat the field brought $30 against $9 for the willow favorite.

Third heat—The horses got away to a good start, Wilkes taking the lead going around the turn. Here Lynette broke, as usual, and fell out of the race, being left thirty yards behind. At the quarter Millie Wilkes led by two open lengths, when Lotter reduced to a half-length before the far turn was reached. Wilkes increased her lead into the stretch to two lengths, and it looked as if the heat was hers to a certainty, but when half way to the wire she left her feet and Lotter forged ahead, winning easily in 2:32. Lynette was pulled up when safe within the distance limit.

SECOND RACE.

This was for four-year-old trotters eligible to the 2-30 class, the only starters being Palo Alto's Laureola and Thomas Smith's George Washington.

First heat—The filly led slightly at the start and showed half a length in front at the quarter. Then the gap was widened, soon Washington rushed up, and the colts were trotting like a team up the back stretch, when Washington broke and fell ten lengths to the rear. Rounding the turn he came up with a great burst of speed and passed the filly at the head of the stretch, leading by six or eight lengths at the seven-eighths post. Here Laureola's driver made an attempt to regain his lost ground, but the little mare responded well, but could not get nearer than an open length at the wire, which was reached in 2:30.

Second heat—Laureola now sold for $30, against $40 for Laureola.

Second heat—Laureola broke on the first turn and dropped out of the race. Washington won in a jog in 2:37.

Third heat—Laureola broke on the turn and fell back fifty yards, but going up the back stretch she caught up with Washington after passing the half. Around the turn they trotted like a double team, when Washington broke, and Laureola led into the stretch by two lengths. Half way down she again took to bobbing, and Washington came home an easy winner in 2:32.

The third event brought the following named side-wheelers out to contest for a purse of $800: Hummer, Sunrise, Ned Winslow, Tom Ryder and Belle Button.

First heat—Several attempts were made to get off before the word was given. Ryder took the lead, but in the turn Hummer and Winslow broke, and Belle Button and Sunrise last. At the half Ryder led Hummer by nearly an open length, Winslow forty yards back, and showing his heels to the other two. Rounding the far turn Hummer evened up with Ryder, and beat him down the stretch, winning by three lengths in 2:30. Winslow third, Belle Button fourth, and Sunrise last.

After the heat Hummer brought $70 in the pools, and the field $20.

Second heat—Hummer held the lead from start to finish, closely followed by Ned Winslow, which gave him a hard push for the race, finishing but a length and a half behind Belle Button, Sunrise and Tom Ryder. The last three were Keating, behind Ryder, McDermott, behind Winslow, and McConnell, behind Sunrise. In their places were substituted McDermott, behind Winslow, and McConnell, behind Sunrise.

Mr. LaRue said the judges had become assured that some of the horses had not been driven to win, and at first had about the same idea, but on seeing the results they had, however, concluded to change the drivers and let the matter rest there, in the hope that nothing of the kind would again occur.

Third heat—The horses were sent off without much delay, Winslow soon taking the lead, Hummer next and Ryder, Button and Sunrise stringing out behind in the order named. The circuit was made in this order, Winslow judging in a little running on two occasions. Down the stretch Hummer closed up on him, and the young aeronaut hanging to the ropes. The judges, however, gave the heat to Hummer, Winslow second, Ryder third, Belle Button fourth and Sunrise fifth. Time, 2:18.

FOURTH RACE.

The last race of the day was for a purse of $1,000, for three minute trotters. The starters were, Vic H., Una Wilkes, Free Coinage and Charles Derby. Pools sold at $80 on Vic H. to $10 on the field. The favorite is a brown mare, owned by D. M. Reavis of Butte, and is by Blackbird.

First heat—Vic H., Una Wilkes and Derby got off evenly. Free Coinage thirty yards back, and showing a disposition to balk. On the turn Vic broke and lost a good ground, Wilkes taking the lead. Derby following. At the quarter Vic came up under a fine brush of speed and passed Wilkes and Derby, and at the half mile was six lengths in the lead. Wilkes leading Derby by two lengths. Coming down the stretch, both Wilkes and Derby bettered their positions, but they could not touch Vic, who won handily in 2:24. Una Wilkes second, Derby third, Free Coinage distanced.

Second heat—Vic H. moved to the front at once, Una Wilkes breaking on the turn and falling to the rear. On the back stretch Derby broke, and Wilkes took second place. Vic H. being six lengths in the lead. Thus the horses rounded into the stretch, the only struggle being between Wilkes and Derby for second place. A few yards from the score Wilkes broke and Derby got the place. Time, 2:25.

Third heat—It was getting late when the horses came up for the third heat. They got a fine send-off, and when they struck the backstretch Vic H. went to the front, and at the half was several lengths ahead of Wilkes, with Derby several more in the rear. Rounding the turn Vic drew away and came home in a jog. Una Wilkes second, Derby last. Time, 2:24.

That the Top Notch Extracts are the best in the market is due to the extreme care used in the selection of material and skill in combining them, and particularly to the fact that a much larger percentage of flavor-producing material is used. Their oil lemon is imported by them from Messina, and the vanilla beans used are all of extra length and superior quality. The flavoring properties of the Top Notch being so much greater than any other extract, it would state that a much less quantity of this may be used to produce a delicious flavor. In ordinary cooking it will be best to add a few drops at a time until the desired flavor is reached. Always keep flavoring extracts in a dark and cool place.
